

NHCS Faculty and Staff are excited about the upcoming school year and look forward to seeing everyone on campus!!

This year, we are pleased to announce that all of the information you typically receive in your "back-to-school packets" is available online. To access these documents, log into Parents-Web and select Resource Documents.

Please be sure to read the documents pertaining to your child's grade, complete the forms highlighted in green and return to the school during orientation.

For your convenience, you may return your signed Back to School documents on orientation night. If documents are returned once school begins, Lower School students may return them to their assigned homeroom teacher and Upper School students may return them to the front desk. Please note that all required signed documents must be returned by Friday August 16th.
